The meeting was called to order by Representative Gipp, Chairman. Roll was taken.

Chairman Gipp introduced Nancy Richards, Department of Transportation, who presented FY 2003 Budget to the committee. Ms. Richardson spoke about the Road Use Tax Fund and how it is funded, and distributed to the different departments. Questions were answered for committee members.

Shirley Andre from the Department of Transportation stated that the DOT would ask for $5 million dollars for two years to enable the department to redesign the system to upgrade license renewal and registration of vehicles. If they wish, county treasurers would be able to perform these transactions.

The budget bill was not voted out of committee today. It will be reviewed at tomorrow's meeting.

A representative from the Auditors office will appear before the committee tomorrow.

Senator Jensen moved to arise.
